

The City of Nanaimo is a rapidly growing community with a population of approximately 86,000. Nestled between the mountains and the ocean, on the east coast of Vancouver Island, we are centrally located, about 1½ hours from Victoria and 2 hours from Vancouver by ferry. With affordable housing, a university and well-developed parks, recreational, cultural and social amenities, Nanaimo is truly an extraordinary place to live.

Police Financial Analyst

The City of Nanaimo is seeking a Police Financial Analyst working within Police Support Services in the RCMP Nanaimo Detachment. The incumbent is responsible for planning, coordinating and administering the budget process and related documentation for the RCMP Nanaimo Detachment and other sections of the Social & Protective Services Department. The Police Financial Analyst will work closely with City staff and RCMP “E” Division personnel, at various levels, to develop, monitor and report on the financial aspects of Protective Services. The incumbent will also be responsible for conducting special projects of a financial nature for the departments.

Applicants will have a professional accounting designation (CPA) as well as a minimum of seven (7) years’ experience in a variety of complex accounting practices in a computerized environment, preferably within a governmental environment. Attainment and maintenance of RCMP Reliability/Security Clearance is mandatory.

This is a unionized position, $40.88 per hour - after Probation (Jan 2013 Rate), based on a 35-hour work week. The wage level for this position is subject to confirmation under a union/management jointly negotiated job evaluation plan. A comprehensive benefit package is included.
