Anvil Centre is the showpiece civic facility located in the heart of the downtown New Westminister. Anvil Centre encompasses 84,000-square feet of interior space and includes: conference and meeting facilities, theatre, multi-purpose rooms, multi-purpose art studios, art gallery, the City's Museum and Archives, and much more. Details and links on this exciting new facility can be found at www.anvilcentre.ca

The Anvil Centre cultural studios are top of the line professional studio spaces that offer quality setting for visual, performing, applied, sound and new media arts. The Centre also offers professionally outfitted, acoustically insulated music practice rooms.

The courses will take place in the cultural studios and instructors will have the ability to connect their classes to the overall programming of the Centre (New Media Gallery, Community Art Space, Museums and Archives).

We are looking for a dynamic theatre arts instructor to join our faculty and help develop our performing arts program. You will design and implement theatre classes for preschool, children, and youth. Some specific duties will include developing curriculum in line with the ongoing programming and upholding the high quality and professionalism of the Anvil Centre.

Requirements include:

- Completion of a post secondary degree, diploma or equivalent in theatre or the performing arts.
- Minimum 3 years of previous teaching experience.
- Experience with contemporary practices, including devised work, collaborative creation, and non-script-based theatre making.
- Considerable knowledge of the principles, practices and objectives of contemporary art education in community recreation facilities.
- Sound knowledge of non-formal teaching methods and group leadership techniques.
- Excellent supervisory and organizational skills.
- Must be able to successfully pass and maintain a criminal and police record check.

*Please note that the hours of work are dependent on program registration and the successful candidate will have the ability to work weekdays, evenings and/or weekends.
