AQUACIZE INSTRUCTORS - WINTER 2016

The City of Surrey's Parks, Recreation and Culture Department currently requires energetic, self-motivated, team players to join us as auxiliary aquafit instructors.

Our classes provide an excellent all-around workout in a relaxed atmosphere. This opportunity requires upbeat and responsible individuals to lead classes. You will be working with people of various age groups. Candidates must have strong customer service and communication skills.

We are currently looking for BCRPA or CALA Aquafit instructors that are able to teach:

- Shallow Water Aquafit
- Deep Water Aquafit
- Low impact Aquafit

Successful candidates will be a BCRPA or CALA Registered Fitness Instructor with a current CPR C/AED. Additional training or certification in 3rd age, Osteofit, pre and post natal is an asset.

We are looking for individuals with the ability to motivate others to help achieve their health goals. If you have strong interpersonal skills and have the necessary experience and training we encourage you to apply.

Those leaders, who enjoy teaching and coaching and are committed to the delivery of a beneficial recreational experience, please apply online.

Completion of Police Information Check is required.

We offer a dynamic work environment and excellent opportunities to advance.
