

MY WORK CITY

Bylaw Services Supervisor Permanent, full time

Resistance is futile...

Join our dynamic management team and assist in the strategic leadership for the City's direction of bylaw services through policy development, work planning and delivery as well as the oversight of the branch's performance management. You supervise staff and work closely with the bylaw team on day to day activities, and ensure the work is in compliance with applicable policies, regulations, and legislation.

Additionally, develop and implement education campaigns to inform the public on City of Kelowna bylaws, improve safety and procedural standards, and act as a liaison with other agencies and partners to align priorities and opportunities for collaboration.

You should possess a degree or diploma in Public/Business Administration or related diploma combined with at least 5 years of progressive experience policing or bylaw enforcement. Bylaw 1 & 2 or equivalent, and RCMP Enhanced Security Clearance is required. Extensive knowledge in the Community Charter, Municipal Bylaws and BC building code, and the demonstrated ability to make sound, defensible decisions. A broad range of expertise in the legal aspects of bylaws with direct experience in leadership, people management, court processes/services and proceedings. Core competencies include: professional credibility, service and communication excellence, conflict resolution, team building and innovation.

Help Kelowna become the best mid-sized City in North America! This is an exempt position that offers a salary range of $75,700 to $84,000. We offer career/professional development, progressive employment practices, an earned day off program, benefits including Municipal pension and a great work environment.
