By-Law Enforcement Officer

The City of Surrey is seeking career-minded individuals to fill the role of Bylaw Enforcement Officer. Working in the By-Law Enforcement & Licensing Section you will be responsible for performing a variety of inspections and regulatory investigational work:

- processing By-law violations and complaints,
- recommending legal action
- gathering sufficient evidence to support charges (integral to this position).

The successful candidate is a self-starter with a good aptitude for problem solving. You:

- must be conversant with the “rules of evidence”
- must be able to attend Court to present evidence
- will have broad experience and demonstrated leadership skills in the areas of law enforcement, security, and customer service
- have relevant post secondary diploma
- have completed By-law Compliance, Enforcement & Investigative skills Level 1 or equivalent
- have a minimum of 4 full time years related enforcement or field investigative experience
- or an equivalent combination of knowledge and experience in an enforcement or investigative field
- have excellent communication skills and ability to interpret and explain by-laws, policies and regulations to the public
- have an ability to deal with potentially confrontational matters with tact and diplomacy.
- You must have a valid BC driver's license with a safe driving history.

The successful candidate will be required to submit a satisfactory criminal record check.

We're looking for a future-focused, hardworking individual with a strong sense of integrity. If you are motivated to offer Surrey residents a better community, even under strained circumstances, we want to hear from you.
